Studio@theCenter Rules & Policies

- Students are expected to treat each other and all staff with respect, and to follow the group instructions and activities.
- Any student whose behavior disrupts the program or jeopardizes the safety of any member of the group will be given a warning and parents will be notified. If behavior does not improve, the Center for Architecture Foundation reserves the right to dismiss the student from the program.
- Tuition is non-refundable.
- Students should bring lunch daily. If you give permission for your 6 – 12 grade child to leave the building to purchase lunch on their own, please sign here: _____.
All students will be expected to eat lunch at the Center with the group under our staff's supervision.

By this permission slip the undersigned hereby acknowledges and agrees that my child, _____, may participate in the school break programs at the Center for Architecture, located at 536 LaGuardia Place, New York. To the fullest extent permitted by law, the undersigned also releases and discharges the Center for Architecture Foundation, the New York Chapter of the American Institute of Architects, Inc. and any other related entities or affiliates, from any and all liability related to any injury, illness, or death or any loss or damage to any personal property that my child may suffer or sustain while en route to the Center for Architecture, while on any trips associated with the course and while at the Center for Architecture.

I also give permission to the Center for Architecture Foundation to take photographs of my child while he/she is engaging in the Center for Architecture Foundation's workshops, and grant the right to edit, use and re-use said products for any and all educational, public service or not-for-profit purposes selected by the Center for Architecture Foundation. I release any and all rights, titles and interest my child or I may have in said photographs, movies, video tapes, web-site productions, finished pictures, reproductions, copies or negatives of the same in connection with such uses.

I have read the above and agree to the terms and conditions:
